

Statewide Panel

Conference Call
February 24, 2017
12:00pm

Attendees: Dana Sullivan, April Murphy, Austin Griffiths, Lisa Gabbard, Lacey Prouty, Rachael Ratliff, Laura Kinney, Verne Webb, Vivian Hurt, and LaToya Vaughn

Absent: Jenny Martin

Meeting Summary - Panel members reviewed and discussed presentation proposals received for the upcoming What Works in Child Welfare Conference. The panel decided on the following presentations:

- Commissioner Johnson & DCBS Awards
- Child Welfare Worker Recognition: Assessment and Suggestions; Presenters: Austin Griffiths, April Murphy, and Dana Sullivan
- The Importance of Retention and Morale within Protection and Permanency; Presenter: Julie Jones
- Education Neglect/Truancy Prevention and Family Engagement; Presenters: Angie Cornett, Mary Pickrell, and Tina Johnson
- Creative Strategies to Engage Families Involved in Child Welfare in the Therapy Process; Presenters: Melissa Runyon and Ester Deblinger
- Empowering Families to Overcome the Impact of Child Physical Abuse and Violence: Combined Parent Child Cognitive Behavioral Therapy (CPC-CBT); Presenters: Melissa Runyon
- Children Exposed to Batterers; Presenter: Kristie Adams
- Handle with Care; Presenters: Lt. Chad Napier (retired)

Action Items

- Each panel member will make attempt to solicit donations for DCBS service worker award bags and notify LaToya of items received prior to next meeting.
- LaToya will send out the tentative agenda for the What Works in Child Welfare Conference.
- Panel members will review tentative agenda for conference and offer feedback to LaToya prior to Wednesday, March 1st.

Next Meeting – March 27th 11:30am (Eastern) - 111 Darby Shire Circle, Frankfort, KY 40601