

Statewide Panel

Saturday, January 21, 2017
11:30am – 2:00pm

Meeting Summary

Topic	Summary
Welcome and Introduction	Attendees: Verne Webb, Austin Griffiths, Dana Sullivan, Laura Kinney, Rachael Ratliff, LaToya Vaughn, Lacey Prouty, Lisa Gabbard, and Vivian Hurt
Review Agenda	LaToya reviewed the agenda with attendees.
Member Information	LaToya updated the panel on the status of their personal information being removed from the CRP website. Panel members were also notified that the links that could be utilized in previous days have been deactivated.
Panel Membership	Verne opened discussion regarding panel member cohesiveness. She noted that she does not feel as if the panel has been connected over the past year. Other panel members agreed and also noted they did not feel as if the panel has been effective on the same page in regards to goals and participation.
Update – Chair Meeting with Commissioner	Lisa gave an overview of meeting between CRP Chairs and Commissioner Johnson.
Update – DCBS Recognition	The panel discussed the importance of recognizing and showing appreciation for Cabinet service workers. Rachael and Austin will meet following this meeting to discuss 2 Rivers Region becoming a pilot for building, establishing and/or repairing relationships between CRPs and service workers. The panel discussed incorporating staff recognition into the What Works Conference. The panel decided on sending out requests for nomination to all service regions, excluding Southern Bluegrass (they have a separate recognition program). LaToya will create nomination form, submit to Rachael, and Rachael will send out to service regions. Panel members discussed award options (i.e. goodie bags, gift cards, flowers, certificates)

What Works Conference	LaToya gave the panel an update on speaker proposals. Two have been received as of this date. LaToya will also reach out to Andrea regarding Handle with Care presentation. The panel decided to incorporate Cabinet employee recognition into the conference as well as invite Commissioner Johnson to discuss what she has implemented since being appointed as well as her plans for the future. Austin suggested that the panel seek out media coverage for the conference. April suggested advertising the conference on social media and other listservs.
What's Next	Rachael will email recently signed MOU to all CRP members. Rachael will send out request for employee recognition nominations; Rachael will request Commissioner Johnson's attendance at What Works Conference. Next meeting Monday, March 27 th at 11:30am Eastern Time at 111 Darby Shire Circle, Frankfort, KY
Wrap Up/Adjourn	Prior to meeting adjournment all panel members expressed how effective they felt this meeting was in regards to participation, efficiency, and morale.